Daisy Brown
Soprano

Daisy Brown is a soprano and director who studied at Trinity Laban, where she was awarded the Eva Malpass Scholarship and the City Livery Club Music Section Prize. She was a finalist in the Thelma King Awards, a semi-finalist in the Handel Festival Singing Competition and Highly Commended by the Boise Foundation Award. Daisy also studied acting at the Central School of Speech and Drama in London.

Recent and future engagements include Tytania A Midsummer Night's Dream (Opera North), Amor Orfeo ed Euridice (Opera North and Buxton Festival), Blonde Die Entführung aus dem Serail (The Grange Festival), Naiad and cover Zerbinetta Ariadne auf Naxos, title role The Snow Maiden and Karolka Jenůfa (Opera North), Masha The Queen of Spades, Tweedle Dee Alice's Adventures in Wonderland and Mabel The Pirates of Penzance (Opera Holland Park), and Frasquita Carmen (Mid Wales Opera and Nevill Holt Opera).

Further engagements include Miss Jessel The Turn of the Screw (Bury Court Opera), Susanna Le nozze di Figaro (Opera Vera), Emmie Albert Herring (Mid Wales Opera), Cis Albert Herring (Britten Pears Arts Young Artist Programme), Pamina The Magic Flute and Kiss Me, Figaro! (Merry Opera Company), and Daniel Susanna (Iford Arts). She was nominated for an Off West End Award for Best Female Lead for Kiss Me, Figaro!.

Daisy is also making an impact as a stage director. She directed Wolf-Ferrari's Il segreto di Susanna at the inaugural If Opera Festival and assisted on the Jette Parker Young Artist Programme's end-of-year show at the Royal Opera House. She subsequently assisted on the Royal Opera House's revival of Turandot.